For making edits, please follow this structure:

Wiki Structure

Books - Top level categories, i.e. PCB Design, Switch Selection

Chapters - Sub-categories within books, if necessary. i.e. Beginner and advanced chapters in PCB design

Pages - Hold the actual info. i.e. The switch descriptions page

General Suggestions

- Use correct grammar whenever possible.
- Use headers, horizontal lines, and indents to organize info.
- Cite or link sources whenever possible.

Other Info

- If you spot any inappropriate edits, please check the revision history and report the incident to ai03 as soon as possible.
- If you are creating a front page icon, please draw on the template using a size 40 brush, or contact ai03 with the icon contents.
- For creating book covers, resize the front page icon to 250x250, then resize to be 400x250 with empty padding on both ends.
